To: Daryl Mark Johnston Via Facebook:

Your post is in Red and Green. My response is in Black.

Mayesvara Dasa To Daryl Mark Johnston OK so you refuse to give even one example from my book which you feel is misleading. So instead please tell me something specific that has convinced you Srila Prabhupada has been poisoned intentionally by Tamal Krishna Maharaja?

Daryl Mark Johnston to Mayesvara Dasa #1: Sky high cadmium levels in Srila Prabhupada's hair:

To get 250X cadmium than what is normally found in the hair would require ingesting such large doses of cadmium on a frequent repeated basis that nobody could survive the process. You apparently are unaware of this important fact and simply believe Nico without doing your own homework to understand how ridiculous his allegation is. Instead you blindly believe: "...his books are heavily researched and highly professional (to my eyes anyways)" Nico has also repeatedly stated that photophobia is a symptom of cadmium poisoning... but neither you or he can present any evidence of that from a reliable medical institution! (Although it may show up as a symptom of excessive air born cadmium affecting the eyes like dangerous smog levels.)

& hearing the murderers talking and whispering about poison.

Nico completely misrepresents all of the results reported by the various audio forensic engineers that he employed to confirm what he wanted. The following chart clarifies how the ONLY thing they all agreed on was the presence of the word poison. That proves NOTHING as it was a term frequently used when the attending devotees were discussing the poisons Srila Prabhupada's kidney were failing to filter out of his blood due to advanced diabetic symptoms. This allegation is fully exposed as vengeful and bias propaganda here: <https://jagannatha.com/no-whisper-evidence/>

Then there's what Tamal Krsna did after Prabhupada was out of his way, turning everything from book distribution to selling paintings/candles etc. He was onboard with changing Prabhupada's perfect books & he set himself up as guru & accepted "good as God" worship, the list goes on and on.

Tamal Krsna was NOT responsible for all these changes you accuse him of, but even if he was... they have nothing to do with proving Srila Prabhupada was poisoned and are completely irrelevant.

I understand you liked the guy, that is alright, but history is filled with stories of murderers being very popular/well liked by almost everyone until it became proven they were strangers to all who knew them.

This is also completely irrelevant and it does not contribute anything towards explaining how TKG carried out the dastardly plans you seem to be so certain he did.

Sometimes personal friendships get in the way of seeing the obvious, it is human nature. Prabhu, I don't blame you for liking the guy and thinking him innocent, it is OK with me. Not everyone is going to be convinced, no two persons see reality the same way.

I worked with TKG and understand why so many people could not do that, but the fact that he upset some who were envious of the tremendous success he had just explains why they are so quick to condemn him now. If you understood how much Srila Prabhupada showered his mercy on him, you would realize he had absolutely NO motive to murder him and EVERY reason to do all he could to keep him alive as long as he could... which is exactly what the evidence clearly shows.

In 1976 Tamal Krishna Goswami was being flooded with appreciation from Srila Prabhupada for all the extraordinary preaching he was doing. Nico claims that Tamal chose to reciprocate for all that affection by studying chemistry so he could poison him in a way that nobody had ever done before! This illustration shows how Tamal had absolutely NO time to do that in 1976 and it reveals another example of how utterly absurd Nico's pulp fiction Poison Conspiracy (P-Con) allegations are! SEE: <http://jagannatha.com/how-time-exposes-the-p-con-fraud/>

Your task certainly is thankless when it comes to trying to convince every single ISKCON devotee of your view being the correct one.

Considering how foolish and emotionally out of control some people are, it's unrealistic to think I could convince everyone to think clearly on this matter. What is evident is that the overwhelming majority of devotees have not become overwhelmed with Nico's Svegali Delusions. Many have personally thanked me for exposing all the fraud behind this terrible rumor. It is you who have the impossible task. If you are attempting to reason with prejudicial individuals not even sober enough to act decently. The entire civilized world agrees a man is to be considered INNOCENT until they are PROVEN guilty. But the Poison Allegations are so frivolous nobody who believe in them can persuade anyone to even present them in a court room... what to speak of win a confirming verdict!

I'm not going to attack your character (why/how could I, I don't know you well enough anyways),

Yes you do not know me at all yet jump to conclusions and apparently do not consider your previous comments as degrading and insulting?

I'd also like to add that ad hominem attacks which are petty are never supportive of your goal of "proving" Srila Prabhupada was not poisoned. Rather they tell me all I need to know about you-when defeated you attack the persons character rather than their thesis, you play dirty.

"He is king of 'ad hominem' attacks, trying to convince people that Nityananda dasa is some degenerate worm who spouts lies 24/7 because he's pure demon 108%, lol."

You cry like a baby when I expose how narcissistic Nico is yet feel it is completely acceptable to accuse an innocent man of murder with no court-worthy evidence? How do you explain that type of behavior? Technically speaking there are so many who have been cheated by Nico, my exposing him of those facts are not really ad-hominem attacks. The entire poison-conspiracy rumor is another example of how he flagrantly misrepresents whatever he must to win supporters and slander the innocent for his own contemptuous reasons.

it is only your opinion concerning Srila Prabhupada's cause of passing that I don't agree with.

My opinion is based on court-worthy evidence, testimonies by very highly trained toxicologists, axiomatic facts, and the testimonies of over 20 eye witnesses and individuals directly involved in Srila Prabhupada's departure. Your opinion is skewed by an individual who has had numerous failed marriages, a string of children who want nothing to do with him, and someone who has been caught lying in court on more than one occasion.

You are fully entitled to think the way you do & it would not be right to try to make you agree if you are not convinced. Haribol, all glories to Srila Prabhupada.

It would be right for you to engage in a serious study of the facts before you spew nonsense about things you have not taken the time to properly understand. I am NOT at all convinced you read my book carefully, or answered any of the questions that are still pending. You sound as comical as another individual who also said he felt my book was filled with lies. When I asked him what he felt was a lie his response was: "I don't know... I didn't read it!"

Haribol, all glories to Srila Prabhupada.

Srila Prabhupada is NOT glorified by distorting the remarkable things he did and perverting the truth about how he departed this world.

Thank You!
